

The Ben Zakkai Institute
Innovative Text-Based Study with Outstanding Scholars
– Jewish Death Practices, Rituals, and Customs – BenZakkai.org

Our learning is based on mutual respect for each other, our teachers, and our students. Everyone is included – whether you’ve learned with us before or are new to Ben Zakkai, all opinions are encouraged and respected, especially the sharing of new perspectives.

To make this learning most respectful and simple to manage, we ask that you honor these guidelines.

PLEASE:

- ◆ Mute yourself unless you are actively in dialog or asking a question
- ◆ Share your image, either with your camera on or a photo of yourself, so instructors can see you
- ◆ Enter your name and city into the chat, so we can all get to know each other
- ◆ Raise your hand (preferably electronically) to ask a question – the host will call on you when the speaker pauses
- ◆ Feel free to add thoughts and commentary, as well as links to relevant texts, articles, and websites in the chat

Thank you! We appreciate your being here.
